GUIDELINES/REQUIREMENTS

Please read the following standards and rules which apply to all members of the Twins Days Festival Royal Court. The submission of this application constitutes agreement by the applying twins to all of these terms if they are chosen for the Royal Court.

- Royal Court members will be selected from all applications postmarked or hand-delivered to the Twins Days office by June 6th. Applications received after this date will not be considered. No applications (including photos) will be returned to any applicants, therefore please do not send valuable or irreplaceable photographs with your application. The committee may consider previously submitted applications for subsequent Royal Courts.
- In the event that fewer than 5 applications are submitted for a particular category, the selection committee may use its discretion to review prior applications and/or to select members of the Royal Court who will best represent the ideals of the Twins Days Festival.
- Applicants for Princes/Princesses must be age 10 or over as of the festival date; applicants for Kings/Queens must be age 21 or over as of the festival date.
- Applicants must have been registered for 4 of the 5 preceding festivals not including the current year. Applicants must also be registered for the current year's festival to be considered.

GUIDELINES/REQUIREMENTS (Continued from other side)

- Applicants must attend and participate in all of the following festival events: Friday night Welcome Wiener Roast and crowning ceremony (7:00 p.m.); Saturday Double Take Parade (9:00 a.m.) through the Saturday twins group photograph (3:00 p.m.); Sunday from noon through the twins group photograph (3:00 p.m.). Additionally, Royal Court members are expected to greet festival attendees and spread cheer and good will as they do throughout both Saturday and Sunday Festival days. This includes posing for photographs with Festival attendees. Additionally, Royal Court members are expected to attend the next year's crowning ceremony on Friday evening. Also, applicants selected must make themselves available for media interviews if needed.
- Applicants selected for the Royal Court will be notified by phone by the selection committee chairman and asked to confirm their understanding of and consent to these standards and rules. In the event a Royal Court member must back out of festival attendance due to illness or injury, the committee reserves the right to select a replacement set of twins for that position.
- The application for Royal Court consists of 4 items after registering for this year's festival: 1) Twin Information, 2) a recent high-quality photograph of the set of twins (If selected, these will be published in the souvenir program. PHOTOS ARE NOT RETURNABLE.), 3) Twin Biography, and 4) Twin Short Essays. Applications missing any part will not be considered by the committee. Essays will be judged primarily on content (not spelling and grammar). Please keep a copy of your submitted application for future reference.
